

COMPANIES

Courtesy photo

Mike McCarney of Legitify, Annie Bourdon from CarShare Vermont and Steve Crafts of Place Creative Co. pose with a CarShare vehicle.

■ Carshare Vermont announced that it was recently nominated by a group of peer organizations from across the U.S. and Canada for the first "Best CarShare Branding Award," Executive Director Annie Bourdon said. Place Creative Company of Burlington created the CarShare Vermont brand identity, brochures, and logo that adorns the organizations car fleet. Steve Crafts of Place was creative director. Legitify of Burlington produced the CarShare Vermont Web site. Mike McCarney of Legitify was executive producer.

■ Capacitor Design Network, a full service graphic design company whose principal, Josh Brown, is located in Hinesburg was recently hired to create merchandise for the Dave Matthews Band. The project includes logos to be used on promotional items such as T-shirts. Capacitor has worked with a variety of artists and record labels since forming in 1997.

■ For the third year in a row, Resource Systems Group of White River Junction has been recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Vermont, along with 14 other Vermont companies. This annual program seeks to identify, recognize and honor the best workplaces in Vermont that benefit the state's economy, its work force and businesses. The full list and ranking of the 15 award-winning companies will be unveiled at an awards gala on April 1 at Burlington's Main Street Landing Film House. A special publication profiling the companies selected will be published in the April issue of Vermont Business Magazine. King Arthur Flour of Norwich was also named to the list.

■ Dealer.com, a leading provider of online marketing solutions for the automotive industry, announced that 2008 saw the highest annual revenue increase in the company's 11-year history, for a six-year growth rate total of 925 percent. In addition to the boost in financial strength, Dealer.com further solidified its industry leadership with OEM and leading dealer group partnerships, cutting-edge research and development, customer service expansion and prestigious product and service awards.

■ For the second year in a row, VBT Bicycling Vacations of Bristol has been named as one of the Best Adventure Travel Companies on Earth by National Geographic Adventure magazine. The magazine's February issue ranks the Vermont-based international bicycle tour operator second in a list of top bicycle tour companies, with the highest customer satisfaction rating of the top five biking companies overall. Founded in 1971, VBT Bicycling Vacations offers 27 deluxe bicycling tours in 18 countries.