

Jason Holehouse, Chief Instructor of Monticello Motor Club Bio:

Jason Holehouse is a professional racer and full-time Chief Instructor for Monticello Motor Club (MMC). Prior to joining MMC, Jason worked for 20 years as a Chief Instructor for the Eastern Region of the Skip Barber Racing School. Jason, a British-Canadian, was starting in karts at age 9 and as a teen won the Canadian Senior National Championship, among a host of other karting titles. He moved up to the exciting 250cc superkarts before heading to Formula Fords, then Formula Atlantic. By the late 1980s, Jason was racing in the professional Atlantic Series in the U.S. and consistently finished races in the top 10. Jason continues his professional racing career in NASCAR (K&N, ARCA) and GRAND-AM.

Please Contact Jason directly if you are interested in working with him at an upcoming SCDA event.
