The King Street Center:
Holding the Best Raffle in Town

BURLINGTON, VT — This year, the King Street Center is the lucky beneficiary of The 9th Annual Clothes Exchange. To celebrate, the Center is selling tickets to the Rejuvenation Raffle, featuring the best of Vermont's refreshing products and services:

- $500 yoga package from Evolution Yoga
- One year of massages from Stephen and Burns
- $1000 shopping spree at Skirack
- One year's worth of cleaning supplies from Seventh Generation
- One-year family membership to Sports and Fitness Edge health club

This prize package is a must-have for those who see spring as a time to re-invent themselves, and Rejuvenation Raffle Tickets make a great Mother's Day or birthday gift. Tickets are sold in packs of five for $20, and can be purchased in person at The King Street Center, at all Clothes Exchange Drop-off Events, on May 1st at the Skirack Bike Swap, and at the May 20th Clothes Exchange. Tickets may also be purchased online at <http://kingstreet.winwinapps.com>.

“The money raised through this raffle will go to support our educational and recreational opportunities for low-income women and girls. These types of programs range from one-on-one tutoring for school-age girls to college preparation classes for teens to English classes for women settled in Vermont as refugees,” said King Street Center Executive Director Vicky Smith.

The King Street Center is a not-for-profit community organization that provides children and families the core life-building skills necessary for a healthy and productive future. The Center's high quality programs build academic skills, improve physical fitness, and develop the fortitude needed to succeed at home, in school, and in life. The Clothes Exchange is an annual fundraising event that benefits a local worthy cause and attracts more than 500 women to shop for thousands of new garments, in addition to pre-loved, high quality women's clothing and accessories. For the first time, this year's event will feature new kids clothing. This year's beneficiary is the King Street Center. To meet demand, The 9th Annual Burlington Clothes Exchange will be held at a larger venue this year —the DoubleTree Hotel in South Burlington on May 20, 2010.
